A Downtown pioneer, Greg Cole's "treasure" in the historic Napa Mill complex still delivers "innovative", "high-quality" New American-Eclectic "comfort food" and "excellent" service at relatively "reasonable" "wine-country prices"; whether you savor "handcrafted cocktails at the bar", dinner in the "modern" dining room or a weekday lunch by the outdoor fireplace ("when the weather cooperates"), it's a "favorite" that will likely "improve" when the construction by the nearby river walk is finished.
